While taking a bath in the river, Tiwi shows off to her friends. "Look what I can do with my trunk!"

But Tiwi's friends do not like it. It annoys them.

They leave one by one. Tiwi is left alone.

Ah, playing with the monkeys may be more fun!

Woohoo!

Ouch! The tree cannot hold Tiwi.

Tiwi is too heavy for that game.

What about playing with the rabbits?

Oops! Ouch!

The rabbits say Tiwi's trunk is too long. Tiwi better plays something else.

What about playing with the pangolin? It looks fun to curl like that! Can Tiwi do it?

Ugh! It turns out curling is difficult.

"Let's leap upside down like this, Tiwi!" Mousedeer says.

Wow, leaping looks fun!

Suddenly . . . splash! Tiwi leaps into the water.

Oh, look! That house is on fire! All the animals are running towards it to offer help.

But the fire is burning the treetops. Tiwi has to do something.

Screech! Tiwi sprays the fire. All animals cheer for her.

The fire is out! Wow, great job, Tiwi!

Now Tiwi knows how to have fun. She can use her long trunk to water the plants in Mr. Bee's garden.

Her trunk can also become a bath fountain. Tiwi loves creating ways to have fun using her trunk.
